

TUITION-FREE CERTIFICATES AND TECHNICAL CERTIFICATES

You may be eligible for a free credential from Ivy Tech Community College

Ready for the next level of your career? You may qualify for a tuition-free certificate or technical certificate with one of Ivy Tech Community College's many programs. Earn a credential in high-demand job areas like Advanced Manufacturing, Building and Construction, Health and Life Sciences, IT and Business Services, and Transportation and Logistics.

Visit IvyTech.edu/nextleveljobs for the complete list of credentials to choose from.

In order to qualify you must:

- Be an Indiana resident
- Have a high school diploma or GED/HSE<sup>1</sup>
- File the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)
- Enroll full-time if you are a dependent student or at least half-time if you are an independent student<sup>2</sup>

<sup>1</sup>You may not have previously earned a bachelor's degree or associate degree

The Next Level Jobs grants covers tuition, mandatory fees, and some consumables for approved programs. All other possible forms of aid must be applied first. The grant is not limited by family income. Certificates are designed to continue your education towards an associate degree.

Visit your local campus, or contact our Answer Center at 888-IVY- LINE for assistance with qualifying, applying, and your steps to enroll.

EARN A CERTIFICATE. ADVANCE YOUR CAREER.

Ivy Tech Community College offers a variety of certificate programs to help you advance in your career, build your résumé and get into the workforce quickly. Since the job market is becoming more competitive, our certificate options will provide you the education you need with résumé experience valuable to employers.

In fact, having one (or several) certificates could help you directly enter the workforce or advance in your current position in one year or less, depending on your program. We have options both in the classroom and online to accommodate your busy schedule.
