FOUNTAIN CENTRAL BASKETBALL NEWSLETTER #10 - HOMECOMING

Jan 24, 2014

THIS WEEK IN MUSTANG BASKETBALL:

Last week the Mustangs struggle but hung on to defeat South Vermillion, a sectional opponent. Ladd Warner hit two big free throws with 2 seconds remaining to secure the 62-60 margin. Ethan Woodrow had a big night with 33 points and 12 rebounds. Doug Wallace contributed 10 rebounds. Saturday night's game with North Putnam was postponed.

THIS WEEK'S FEATURED MUSTANGS:

Ethan Woodrow – Junior – Forward

Ethan is also a standout tight end for the football team and made several impressive catches this season. His favorite teachers are Mr. Webb, Mr. Kight, and Mr. Groover, and his favorite class is math. He enjoys hunting and his favorite song is "Jungle Love" but the Steve Miller Band. His favorite sports teams are the Colts, Pacers, and the Indiana Hoosiers. His favorite movie is Hoosiers and his favorite television show is The Fresh Prince of Bel-Air.

Ethan is steadily moving up the all time lists on both scoring and rebounding at Fountain Central. More important than his scoring and rebounding ability this season has been his leadership. Ethan has developed into the leader that we need him to be. We hope to see him continue to grow as a leader and lead us to big wins this season.

MUSTANG TEACHER OF THE WEEK:

This week, the Mustangs would like to thank Coach Dave Bolin for his dedication to the students at Fountain Central. Andrew Golia says Coach Bolin "helps anyone who asks him," and Uriah Kyger says Coach Bolin "has a great sense of humor, can motivate anyone, and cares about his students." One of my personal favorite memories of Coach Bolin is of him yelling and pumping his fist as our players were making a late run in the sectional championship two years ago. The kids at FC are lucky to have Coach Bolin as a teacher and coach.

OTHER BASKETBALL NEWS:

Instead of news this week, we'd like to take a moment to thank some of the hardest working people in the basketball program – our managers. Various students help us on a daily basis. A special thanks goes out to Emily Payton, Shelby Holt, Kolby Curtis, Logan Starkey, and Dallas Truxal. Also, though she is not a manager, Chynna Yager, helps out tremendously on game nights. Thank you all for you help with the program – your work does not go unnoticed!

I would also like to thank my wife for putting up with me during basketball season – I know it isn't easy. I am very thankful to have my kids and my wife at so many games. It really does help, and it means a lot to me. Thank you!

THIS WEEK'S OPPONENTS:

CRAWFORDSVILLE ATHENIANS

Crawfordsville features one of the best guards we will face in Hank Horner. He is athletic and capable of scoring a lot of points. We must contain him to have a chance to win. Coach Pierce's teams always put a lot of pressure on us defensively. This will be one of the most physical defenses we will see this season. The Athenians will be one of the best defensive teams we face this season.

SOUTH NEWTON REBELS

The Rebels are still a fairly young team, but they are building on those young players. I expect South Newton to play some zone and attempt to slow the game down a little. Our patience both on defense and on offense will be crucial.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR THIS WEEKEND:

Friday night, we will face a tough defense from the Athenians. The last two games with them have been difficult. Though we won at Crawfordsville last year, it was a tough game, and Seth Lewis nearly shot them to victory in the fourth quarter. This weekend, we will need to take care of the ball and not allow their defensive pressure to force us into poor shot selection.

LOOKING AHEAD:

The Mustangs have yet another double weekend next week with games against Benton Central and Faith Christian. Both are long road trips. Our game at Benton Central will feature a freshmen game as well as a JV game (both will begin at 6pm in separate gyms). Six of our last seven games are on the road before we come home to host the sectional.

THIS WEEK'S BASKETBALL THOUGHT:

Focus on what you can control. Too often, as players and coaches we worry about the things we can't control (officials' calls, hard fouls, etc.). When we get caught up in worrying about the things outside our control, we suffer as a team.

TONIGHT'S PROBABLE STARTERS:

| | | | |
|---|----------------|-----|-----|
| F | Doug Wallace | 6-2 | Jr. |
| F | Ladd Warner | 6-7 | So. |
| F | Kiowa Simonton | 6-4 | Sr. |
| G | Ethan Woodrow | 6-6 | Jr. |
| G | Clayton Corey | 6-0 | Jr. |
